Frequently Asked Questions

What Is PTE?

The Pearson Test of English Academic (PTE) is a language test designed to assess the use of the English language skills of non-native English speakers. Generally speaking, the PTE test is used to test the skills of non-native speakers intending to apply for university courses in Australia and other English-speaking countries. It's a computer-based test that offers fast and objective results.

Why is a computer-based test better?

With a computer-based test, your PTE scores can be marked rapidly and sent through quickly. Most test-takers receive their results within 48 hours. It's also a less stressful format as you don't have to speak directly to an examiner or write out your answers by hand. Using an automated scoring system that takes human error out of the equation, you can have confidence that the system will judge your English language skills fairly.

How are PTE exams formatted?

PTE exams are 100% computer-based. The test is three hours long and is divided into three sections:

Part 1 – Speaking and Writing (77-93 minutes)

Part 2 – Reading (32-41 minutes)

Part 3 – Listening (45 – 57 minutes)

Throughout the test, you'll be asked 20 different types of questions, from simple multiple-choice questions to more in-depth essay questions and interpreting information.

Is PTE training widely recognised?

More than 3,000 colleges, institutions, universities, and professional bodies trust PTE to verify applicants' English skills, including a major Australian education group of universities. The Australian, New Zealand, and UK Governments accept PTE as proof of English proficiency for all visa and migration applications.

As such, there are more than a few PTE institutions across Australia that offer online classes and live sessions for coaching based on the latest PTE prediction file. In order to successfully pass the actual test, it's important to work with PTE experts that genuinely care about your desired PTE scores. The best PTE online coaching or live classes will prepare you for all the tasks that you will come across within the test; helping you to feel confident on the day of the actual test where you'll need to choose multiple answers, formulate sentence structure, provide written text, and read aloud. That's where Englishfirm come in.

PTE practice and preparation is the key to success – by working with Englishfirm, your chances of successfully passing and learning the English language are greatly increased.

How Does PTE Training Work?

Englishfirm offers flexible PTE class options to fit in with your schedule. We have online and in-person PTE coaching options available and courses that range from two weeks to unlimited classes for those wanting support until they've achieved their target score.

Our coaching sessions are designed to simplify passing the PTE test. We make sure that each student is fully aware of the exam format, the technical requirements of the test, and has unlimited access to relevant material. We provide an accelerated learning experience to erase all your doubts and pass the test with flying colours on the first attempt. If a student misses any coursework, we will make sure that they are provided with as much practice material and information as required to get back on track. Live and online coaching is designed to help students achieve their desired PTE score. Our PTE tutorials will provide all exam preparation and mock tests needed to go into the final exam, fully confident in your ability to speak, listen, read, and write with a high level of English language proficiency.

Can You Help Me to Pass My Exam on the First Try?

Yes, we can! We prioritise our PTE students and offer flexible coaching modalities and unlimited practice sessions to ensure you're successful the first time around. On average, PTE students need ten hours of classes and ten hours of practice to pass the PTE exam, and we've found that one-on-one PTE training to be the most effective option to get the results needed for a fantastic PTE score.

How Quickly Can I Start a PTE course?

English firm has two branches in Sydney, conveniently located in the CBD and Parramatta and another in central Melbourne. We operate seven days a week and offer classes year-round. We also offer online options for those not located in Sydney or Melbourne or if you require more flexibility.

What Types of PTE Classes do Englishfirm Offer?

We offer a range of PTE coaching options, both on and offline, including:

- Two-week crash courses for students who have limited time or need to take a test imminently.
- Four-week courses covering techniques for all four modules as well as unlimited practice sessions and mock tests.
- Unlimited courses that run indefinitely until the student achieves their target score.

How does PTE compare with IELTS?

According to the feedback we've received from our test participants, PTE feels less stressful, easier to prepare for, and most importantly, test results come through faster. Most test-takers receive their results within 48 hours. PTE is comparable to IELTS, so if you know which band score you need to apply to study, work, or apply for a visa, you can quickly work out what PTE score you need to achieve with our PTE preparation.

Is a PTE Coach Worth Paying For?

We definitely think it is! Formal training at a PTE centre is not a pre-requisite for taking the PTE exam. In our experience, even if you're confident in your English language skills, taking the test without adequate preparation can be costly. At $375 per test, costs can quickly mount if you try, and fail, to pass multiple times. Investing a little in tutoring and PTE coaching may well be the wisest option to save you time and money in the long run. You can book a free demo class with Englishfirm to get started.
